RE: Letter of Recommendation for Wehiwa Aloy

To All Interested Coaches, Scouts, and Recruiters:

I have had the privilege to coach Wehiwa Aloy for a number of years in our local youth baseball leagues and am currently his coach at H.P. Baldwin High School. I have witnessed many examples of his hard work, dedication, and determination that have led to his success as an athlete.

Wehiwa is a very humble and respectful young man, one who listens well and is eager to learn. His work ethic and desire to improve in the game of baseball is what sets him apart from his peers. He carries these same traits into the classroom where he also excels as student. At a very young age Wehiwa developed aspirations to play collegiate baseball, and in my opinion, he has worked diligently both on and off the field to position himself to do just that.

Along with other accomplishments and accolades, Wehiwa was recently a member of the 2019 Senior Little League World Series Championship team, which is a direct result of years of hard work and commitment to the sport.

In conclusion, I would like to restate my recommendation for Wehiwa Aloy. If given the opportunity, he will certainly add value and depth to any college baseball team across the nation. If you have any further questions regarding this recommendation, please do not hesitate to contact me using the phone number below.

Sincerely,

Craig Okita
